HER TASTES
OF ITALY

BELLINI

Starter

Carpaccio Di Tonno, Crema Di Mozzarella, Lime, Erba Cipollina
Tuna carpaccio, buffalo mozzarella cream, lime, chives

I remember the Mediterranean, the sun-sparkling soul of Italy. Salty sea breeze and brilliant blue waters. The perfume of lemon trees, their citrus treasures ripening slowly. “The Sardes are almost all born poets,” declared Charles Dickens’ magazine. How right they were! I taste the lyrical magic of the Italian island every bite. The songs of ancient mariners. The rhythms of fields and groves.
The music of lively piazzas.

Poetry for the spirit and the palate.

Appetiser

Tagliolini Fatti in Casa Con Fonduta Di Parmigiano Reggiano e Tartufo Nero Fresco
Tagliolini with Parmesan cream sauce, fresh black truffle, extra virgin olive oil

As the sun sets in Emilia-Romagna, a golden glow drapes the cobblestoned streets and medieval houses. A nearby trattoria beckons, warm and lined with wheels of cheese. First produced by local monks a thousand years ago, today’s Parmigiano Reggiano is still made in the same way. Fresh black truffle echoes the day’s truffle hunt in the woods.

History, tradition, nature — it all comes together in every forkful.

Main Course

Aragosta, Sedano Rapa, Olio All’Aneto, Caviale
Butter poached lobster, celeriac purée, caviar, dill oil

The wine has made me dreamy...
I close my eyes for a second, and just like that, I am back in Italy. A bell tower peals, washing over weathered ivy-clad walls. I breathe in the flavours all around me. Grassy dill, growing along sheltered hillsides. Earthy celeriac, mentioned by Homer himself in his epics. The famed lobsters of Alghero, which graced the tables of nobility across Europe.

I open my eyes...ah! Italy is still right here in front of me.
Buon appetito!
